

Anti-Facebook Group Takes Anti-Facebook Signs to Congress

Group portrays Jewish Facebook execs as two-headed octopus with tentacles across globe

SHARE TWEET EMAIL

BY: Brent Scher

The recently launched Freedom from Facebook coalition, which includes anti-Israel groups such as Jewish Voice for Peace and Linda Sarsour's Change as members, showcased signs portraying Jewish Facebook officials as an octopus with tentacles across a globe, an anti-Semitic trope reminiscent of Nazi Germany to push conspiracy theories of Jewish control.

Freedom from Facebook members showcased signs showing Mark Zuckerberg and Sheryl Sandberg as an octopus in the opening moments of Facebook executive Monika Bickert's testimony to the House Select Committee.

The signs could be seen clearly in C-SPAN's broadcast, though the protesters were quickly put away the signs and removed from the hearing.

A clearer image of the sign was posted shortly after they were displayed at the hearing by Eddie Val, a communications representative for Freedom from Facebook.

